Railway Wharves Unsanitary

"While the Board of Health is complaining about the unsanitary conditions of Iwilei, why doesn't it take a look around the railroad and other wharves abutting the Iwilei camp?" said a waterfront man yesterday to a representative of the Hawaiian Star.

He explained that there was not the least pretense at toilet facilities on the wharves, and at times there were three and four hundred men working on them. It was different, of course, when a vessel was alongside the dock, but there was not always a boat in.

People complained, he said, about the uncleanness of the Russians in Iwilei, but the same conditions practically were existing right alongside the camp, and no notice whatever was taken of the matter. It must be known to the owners of the wharves that they were totally lacking in facilities, but no attempt had ever been made to remedy the defect.

When the wind was blowing from the south, he said, the stench was unbearable, and, he added, if something were not done to abate the nuisance, sooner or later there would be an epidemic. He considered that the health authorities should take the matter in hand immediately and see to it that adequate arrangements were made.

Claudine Has Mixed Cargo.

There was a decided mixture about the Claudine's cargo from Hawaii and way ports this morning. She had twenty cords of wood, one locomotive boiler, sixteen crates of chickens, thirty-six sacks of corn, twenty-five sacks of potatoes, 100 watermelons, forty-eight hogs and 217 packages of sundries.

W. G. Hall From Kauai.

The W. G. Hall arrived from Kauai this morning with 5,500 bags of sugar, twenty bags of coal, three automobiles, one horse, forty-one empty wine barrels, one motorcycle, one bag of coin and forty-three packages of sundries.

Wallele Has Sugar, Chiefly.

The major portion of the Wallele's cargo from Hawaii this morning was sugar; she had no fewer than 7,392 bags. There were also thirty-five bales of wool, forty-three bundles of hides, seventy-four head of cattle, twenty-four bundles of goat skins and five packages of sundries.

Inter-Island Shipping.

Purser Kibling, of the Claudine, reports that the A. H. S. Mexican, the schooner El Dorado and Ethel Zane were at Hilo on Monday last.

Korea Expected Saturday.

H. Hackfeld & Co., agents for the Pacific Mail, have not so far received a wireless message from the Korea, which went aground near Yokohama. They think that the necessary time will be made up on the long stretch between Yokohama and Honolulu, and thus enable the Korea to arrive here on Saturday next. If she arrives in the morning, it is pretty well certain that she will be dispatched the same day, but if she is delayed at all, then she will not sail until Sunday morning.

Improving Pacific Mail Boats.

The results of General Manager Schwabia's trip to the Orient are far-reaching, even if they have been slow in making their appearance. He has decided to improve the standard of the mails served on the Pacific Mail boats, and with this end in view a special caterer has been attached to the staff. This employee passed through here on the Mongolia on Monday last, and it was said, already the effects of his presence were being shown in improved meals.

state rooms are also to take place, and a chair is to be given to each room in future. The General Manager has learned from practical experience the improvements that are essential. Perhaps further necessary reforms will follow in due course.

Sierra Has 105 Cabin Passengers.
A wireless message was received from the Sierra this morning stating that she has 105 cabin passengers and eight in the steerage, together with 1,878 tons of cargo, 162 sacks of mail and Wells, Fargo express matter. She is due here early on Friday morning, and will dock, as usual, at the Oceanic wharf at the foot of Fort street.
